(a) whether the attention of Government has been drawn to the news-item appearing in the Hindustan Times of 25th June, 1994, under the caption "Major racket flourshihg in multiple share applications";

(b) if so, the details thereof and the action taken thereon;

(c) whether the bank officials who are responsible for the misuse of the stock- invests have been identified;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) the action taken against them?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) It has been noticed that in some of the recent public issues, large scale benami share applications have been lodged using the instrument of Stockinvest. The Income Tax Department had conducted an investigation into the allegation that there were a large number of applications made in fictitious names in respect of the public issues of equity ■hares by State Bank of India, and had seized certain share certificates and refund orders from the office of the Registrars to the issue. The Income Tax Department had also restrained the Registrars from despatching some share certificates and refund orders. State Bank of India had advised the Registrars to reject all multiple and benami application* besides incomepletely/raaccuratdjr filled applications.

(c) to (e) The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) had conducted a scrutiny of the operation of the Stockinvest scheme at the branches of a few banks in Bombay and Ahmedabad. This reve-afed irregulartice in the working of the scheme, such as issue of stockintvest in bulk to share brokers,, corporate bodies and financial institutions issue of stockinvest against inadequate deposit issue of pre-dated stockinvest and transfer of stockinvest to third parties, RBI brought these irregularities to the notice of the banks concerned with instructions to initiate immediate action to rectify the irregularities, including fixation of staff accountability.

Misuse of Vabal Scheme

987. PROF. VIJAY KUMAR MAL-HOTRA: SHRI O. P. KOHLI:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to refer to the answer to Unstarred Question 2612 given in the Rajya Sjabha on 15th March, 1994 regarding misuse fo VABAL scheme and state:

(a) whether the Committee of interministerial constituted by the Director-General of Foreign Trade has since lookedinto the Value Based Advanced Licencing Scheme;

(b) if so, the details thereof as also the outcome thereof; and

(c) the action taken by Government thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE BST THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKHAR URTHY): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. The inter-ministcrial Com mittee, set up by the Director-General at Foreign Trade, examined various aspects of the Value Based Advanced Licencing Scheme, in consultation with the trade Export Promotion Councils and other Governmental agencies and recommended its continuance. However, to prevent misuse of concessions thereunder, the Committee recommended that generic entries may, as far as possible, be tightened and the input-output norms be fixed for specific products. Further, before granting valne-I based licences above Rs. 25 lakhs, the
